Summary of Commentary in Pravda on Sub-Saharan Africa

(22 October - 21 November 1981)*

Africa General

Arab-African Congress

(Excerpt) Preparations have begun for the Arab-African Congress that will assemble in Luanda, Angola, from 6-9 December. Nearly 30 delegations of international and national political organizations, parties, and liberation groups are expected to participate. (25 Oct 81, p. 1)

Pest Control Campaign

(Excerpt) The problems associated with combating the tsetse fly, which causes the large-scale deaths of cattle in Africa and threatens the general health of many people, were discussed at a medical specialists' conference held in Arusha, Tanzania. (28 Oct 81, p. 1)

Francophone Africa

Francophone Conference

(Excerpt) Work has concluded at the 8th Conference of African Francophone Heads of State and Governments and France held in Paris. The participants of the conference called for an effort to stabilize the prices of raw materials, the primary export of the developing countries. The conference also dealt with international problems such as Namibia and the Western Sahara. Regarding Namibia, the delegation to the conference concluded that it was essential that this territory achieve its independence by 1982. (6 Nov 81, p. 6)

Organization of African Unity

Solidarity with Namibian People

(Excerpt) The Organization of African Unity, meeting in Addis Ababa, called on all progressive governments of the world to increase their aid to the people of the Republic of South Africa and Namibia who are struggling against racism and oppression. (28 Oct 81, p. 5)

Soviet Interests in Africa

Soviet Embassy Receptions

[Soviet embassies held receptions on the occasion of the 64th Anniversary of the Great October Socialist Revolution. Among those embassies holding receptions in Africa that were reported in Pravda included, the embassy in Ethiopia at which Berkanu Baier and Teka Tulu members of the Provisional Military Administrative Council, attended; the embassy in Angola at which M. Rodriguez, member of *Issues of 5, 12, and 21 November not received.

the Central Committee of the Popular Movement for the Liberation of Angola (MPLA) - Labor Party and Minister of Foreign Affairs, and S. Nujoma, President of the South-West African People's Organization (SWAPO), attended; the embassy in Mozambique at which J. O. Montayru, member of the Central Committee of the Front for the Liberation of Mozambique (FRELIMO), attended; and the embassies in Madagascar and Guinea-Bissau. (9 Nov 81, p. 5)]

Recognition of Bolshevik Revolution

[The Soviet Union commemorated the Bolshevik Revolution, its national holiday, on 7 November. The following African countries sent congratulatory messages that were published in Pravda: Ethiopia, Benin, and Madagascar (9 Nov 81, p. 4); Mozambique, Guinea, Ghana, Sao Tome and Principe, Cape Verde, Tanzania, and Angola (10 Nov 81, p. 4); and Zambia. (11 Nov 81, p. 4)]

South African-Chilean Alliance

(The Republic of South Africa-Chile Axis is considered by the White House to be one of the cornerstones of its South Atlantic strategy.)

Ось ЮАР — Чили рассматривается Белым домом как один из краеугольных камней «южноатлантической стратегии» США.
(Из газет).

Два топора пара... (A pair of axes) Рис. В. Фомичева.

(22 Oct 81, p.5)

Provocative Military Maneuvers

(Excerpt) Provocative American imperialist intrigues against Libya were condemned by the Organization for Solidarity with the Peoples of Africa, Asia, and Latin America. Furthermore, planned military maneuvers by the United States, in conjunction with Egypt, Somalia, Sudan, and Oman, are a serious threat to the safety of Libya. (23 Oct 81, p. 4)

US-South African Collusion

— Тебе, моя драгоценная, я прощаю любые шалости.
Рис. Н. Малова.

(My Jewel, I forgive your every prank.)

(31 Oct 81, p. 5)

Angola

Clash with South African Army

(Excerpt) According to an Angolan Defense Ministry communique released in Luanda, units of the National Armed Forces of Liberated Angola (FAPLA) and invasion forces of the South African Army clashed in Cunene Province. The FAPLA units repulsed the enemy which lost two "Impala-2" aircraft, one "Puma" helicopter, and personnel. (29 Oct 81, p. 5)

MPLA Delegation

(Excerpt) A delegation of the Popular Movement for the Liberation of Angola (MPLA) - Labor Party led by L. Pizzaro, Chief of the MPLA - Labor Party Central

Committee's Political Education and Ideological Training Section, left the Soviet Union for Angola on 29 October. (30 Oct 81, p. 4, and reported in toto by FBIS Soviet Union Daily Report #217, 10 Nov 81, p. J2)

Of particular importance to Angola is the assistance derived from learning from the experiences of socialist allies in the building of a socialist economy. (2 Nov 81, p. 1)

Unquestioned Political Orientation

[Pravda Correspondent M. Zenovich toured Benguela, Lobito, and Luanda, Angola speaking with workers and officials about the achievements of the Angolan revolution. In Benguela, a commissioner told him, "I wish to assure the readers of Pravda that the Angolan people regard highly the support of socialist countries and will never stray from the path of socialist development, which they consider to be the only true path." (3 Nov 81, p. 4)]

Western Initiative on Namibia

(Excerpt) The Angolan news agency (ANGOP) has categorically rejected Western propaganda's fabrications to the effect that the new initiative of the five Western powers on Namibia has been "approved in principle" by the Angolan leadership and the South-West African People's Organization (SWAPO). ANGOP noted that there is no special position for Angola or SWAPO on the question of Namibia's independence compared to the position of the other frontline states. (4 Nov 81, p. 5, and translated in toto by FBIS Soviet Union Daily Report #219, 13 November 81, p. J1)

Brezhnev Anniversary Greetings

(Summary) L. I. Brezhnev sent J. E. dos Santos, Chairman of the Popular Movement for the Liberation of Angola (MPLA) - Labor Party and President of Angola, a congratulatory message on the occasion of Angola's 6th anniversary of national independence. (11 Nov 81, p. 1, and translated in toto by FBIS Soviet Union Daily Report #222, 18 Nov 81, p. J2)

Namibia

Pretoria's Turnhalle Puppet

(Summary) P. Botha, Prime Minister of the Republic of South Africa, held talks in Windhoek, the capital of the illegally-occupied territory of Namibia, with representatives of the "internal parties," the South African propaganda term for their political marionette regime in Namibia. The outcome of the negotiations was an agreement that the so-called Democratic Turnhalle Alliance would be promoted as the sole, legal representative of the Namibia people in future dealings with the Western Contact Group over the question of Namibia's independence. (22 Oct 81, p. 5)

US Initiatives Are Stalling Tactics

(Summary) The shuttle diplomacy surrounding America's "improved version" of the UN Security Council Resolution 435 aimed at the achievement of Namibia's independence will lead to a repetition of the situation early this year when the South African racists and their puppets wrecked the Geneva talks on Namibia. The real point of the new Western initiative is to postpone as long as possible the holding of internationally - monitored elections to a constitutional assembly in Namibia since such elections may bring a South-West African People's Organization (SWAPO) victory. (13 Nov 81, p. 5, and translated in toto by FBIS Soviet Union Daily Report #222, 18 Nov 81, p. J1)

Republic of South Africa
